Florence March 9. N. S.

THE Senator Antenori is arriv'd here from Milan, and has given the Great Duke of Tuſcany an Account of his Commiſſion, by which he has receiv'd the Inveſtiture of Sienna, in the Name of his Maſter, from the Count de Colmenero; and the ſame Miniſter is to ſet out for Vienna to Compliment his Imperial Majeſty, upon his Elevation to that Dignity, and to manage ſome other important Affairs. Great Preparations are making at Rome, and a Palace is fitting up for the Reception of the Electoral Prince of Saxony, who is expected there before Eaſter, and after the Holy Week, he deſigns to come to this Place, where no leſs Honours will be paid him upon his Arrival.

Turin, March 9. N. S. Their Royal Highneſſes have receiv'd the Compliments of Condolance upon the Death of their Daughter, the Dauphineſs of France, from the Magiſtrates and Univerſity of this City, as likewiſe from the Nobility, and all the Foreign Miniſters. The General Officer whom his Royal Highneſs ſent to Coni, is return'd hither, and aſſures us, that the Enemy cannot undertake any thing on that Side for a conſiderable time, by reaſon of the Snows and badneſs of the Ways, and the General who Commands at Suza, ſeems to be of the ſame Opinion: However, the French having made greater Diſpoſitions than are uſual at this Seaſon, both at Briancon and in Savoy, and being likewiſe in Daily Expectation of a Reinforcement of Troops from Rouſſillon, his Royal Highneſs has thought it proper to write to General Viſconti at Milan, to ſend Thirteen Battalions of the Imperial Troops deſign'd for Piedmont, to March before the reſt of the Army, and his Royal Highneſs has given the neceſſary Orders for their Reception at St. Baleine, but it is not expected that they can arrive at that Place before the beginning of the next Month. We have advice from Milan, that the German Forces were to Halt at St. Denix and Montenera, to expect the Orders of his Royal Highneſs; and that great Proviſions of Forage had been made in the Milaneze, being deſign'd part for Piedmont, and the reſt for Catalonia. About Nine Days ago the Funeral of the Marquis of Lagnaſco, General of the Artillery, was Solemniz'd with much Pomp. The Corps was attended by two Regiments, four Pieces of Cannon, and all the Generals and other Officers, and upon its Interment, there was a triple Diſcharge of twelve large Pieces of Artillery. Sir Henry Bellaſyſe, Mr. Stawell and Mr. Archer, are arriv'd here, and purſuant to their Commiſſion from the Queen of Great Britain, are enquiring into the Accounts of ſuch Sums of Mony as have been remitted hither from England.

Florence, March 15. N. S. They write from Leghorn, that Her Majeſty's Ship the Dartmouth, Captain Steward Commander, is ſail'd from that Port to Cruiſe, and that the Lion Man of War, Captain Walpole Commander, is to follow in three or four Days. We have a Report, that a Squadron is fitting out at Thoulon, but it is not yet known upon what Deſign.

Venice, March 18. N. S. They write from Rome, that the Prince Savelli died there on the Sixth Inſtant, being very far advanced in Years, and together with him that Ancient and Noble Family, is extinguiſh'd. The Princeſs Savelli is retir'd into the Convent of the Tower de Specchi, into which ſome Days before, Donna Bernardina Albani, Widow to the late Don Horatio Albani had made her Entrance, being accompanied thither by her Sons Don Charles and Don Horatio. The Prince was Interr'd among his Anceſtors without Pomp in the Church of Araceli, and his Office of Marſhal of the Conclave, has been given by the Pope to the Prince Don Auguſto Chigi. The Pope has Excommunicated ſome Miniſters of the Duke of Savoy, becauſe they have hindred the receiving of the Revenues of ſuch Eccleſiaſtical Preferments as were vacant in his Royal Highneſs's Dominions; and the Excommunication is Printed and fix'd up in Publick, with the Names of twelve of them. The Pope has given to the Marquis de Prie, Ambaſſador from the Emperor and King of Spain, and to his Succeſſors in that Miniſtry, an Annual Penſion of Twelve hundred Roman Crowns, ſo that his Embaſſy, is computed to be of the Yearly Value of Twelve thouſand Pound Sterling. On Saturday laſt came into this Port the Cornwall Gally, with Herrings, Pilchards and Lead. The Prince D'Elbeuf being return'd from Germany, and having conferred with the Prince Hercolani, is ſet forwards for Naples. Signior the Secretary Paulucci, who is to ſucceed Signior Franceſchi, the Reſident from this Republick in that Kingdom, has received his Inſtructions, and will be upon his departure thither ſoon after Eaſter. The Magiſtrate of Health takes all neceſſary Precautions for the continuance and preſervation of it in this City, and has given Orders that no Men or Goods ſhall be admitted into this Place till One and twenty Days after their arrival, if they come from Stiria, Carinthia, and Carniola; and not till Forty, if they belong to Croatia. His Electoral Highneſs the Prince of Saxony, having receiv'd Letters from King Auguſtus, his Father, by the way of Vienna, ſent the Palatine of Livonia, and the Barou de Hagen to take leave, in his Name, of the Pope's Nuncio, and of the four Deputies of this Republick, that accompanied him, during his ſtay here, and yeſterday Morning his Highneſs ſet out from hence, having ſeen all that is remarkable in this City, being extremely ſatisfy'd with the Honours he has receiv'd: He goes by Water to Padua, and will proceed from thence to Milan. It is reported here, that his intended Journey to Rome will be deferr'd till ſome other opportunity.

Deal, March 27. Here are Her Majeſty's Ships the Auguſt, Reſerve, Dover and South Sea Caſtle; and Yeſterday in the Afternoon came in hither Her Majeſty's Ship the Litchfield. This Morning came in hither Her Majeſty's Ship the Centurion, as alſo the Real and Levant Gallies from Leghorn.

Falmouth, March 24. Yeſterday Sail'd Her Majeſty's Ship Foway to the Eaſtward, and two ſmall Coaſters.
